September at Oceanview Captain Johnson—A Great Guest

We were very pleased to have CAPT Allen Johnson, USN, Director of COMTHIRDFLT's MOC and N3, speak to us at our September luncheon. He did a terrific job of answering, "What is a MOC and what does it do?" He explained the Maritime Operations Center as a concept that Third Fleet has recently adopted. It takes the C3F staff from being a maritime HQ that trains and certifies deploying forces, to one that coordinates maritime capabilities through a full range of military operations. This shift to a full campaign approach was necessitated by an emerging China and a rearming Russia, which increased the likelihood of facing major combatant operations in the Pacific. The MOC "Monitors, Assesses, Plans, Directs and Communicates" in conjunction with other MOCs worldwide to achieve C3F's expanded mission. CAPT Johnson concluded with words of praise for Submarine Force readiness and effectiveness ... applauding submarine crews for how hard they are working despite how heavily they are being tasked these days. "Thank you, CAPT Johnson!". Video Clips of CAPT Johnson's talk will soon be available on the NSLPACSW Website.
